School Closed for a Whole Day!
I won't tell by who!

None of the students in Leo Baeck Jr. High will be coming to school on the 22nd of this month. After talking to some of them, it came to my attention that the reason is probably that it's a Saturday.

The teachers support the decision of the students and they won't come to school on the twenty-second either, as a sign of empathy.
